Information sought	Reply
As per which rule persons having II nd division in B.Sc degree & Engg. Diploma has been given track change promotion and not to a person having I st division in B.Sc.degree	Not an Information under Sec 2(f) of RTI Act 2005
After having additional qualification, I was not given track change promotion, but why I was not sent for promotion in following (next) i.e.2003 year.
Due to merging of Technician-E & Technician-F post some persons were given early promotion but my case was not considered. Please clarify
By performing my duties honestly & with punctuality, I am threatened by transferring to other places & lowering grades in ACRs/APAR's and some colleagues were given highest grades even though they never attended office in time or at least for 4/5 hours daily and some misbehaving persons were sent for promotion after 3-4 years. And I was not even considered for normal promotions in pattern like others. Why?
Why I was not sent for promotion after completion of 27 years of service as others?
